

THE STAFFORDSHIRE BULL TERRIER EXHIBITION GROUP

CHARITY NO 1110633

In 1985 that the idea of setting up a permanent museum in the Heart of the Black Country dedicated to the Staffordshire Bull Terrier was discussed. In 1996 a group was formed and over the subsequent years, a number of temporary exhibitions were staged. In 2005, the Group finally achieved Charity status.

The Group acquired premises from the Council in the Old Post Office in Wednesbury and became the first Centre in Britain dedicated to the Breed, the Centre opened on 13th March 2009. In 2014, the owners of the building informed the Exhibition Group that the building was needed for other activities so the Centre closed and the artefacts put into storage.

In 2015, Sandwell Council offered the group premises in Albert Street, Wednesbury in 2015 for a New Centre. Renovation work took place over a number of months and the new Centre officially opened on 20th February 2016.

The museum is dedicated to promoting and championing the history of the Black Country's favourite breed and includes a detailed insight into the breed and its origins. The exhibition will display old photographs, paintings, posters, documents, videos and Stafford memorabilia donated by Stafford enthusiasts and Clubs.

The group are always exploring different funding options and the means to generate money to maintain and preserve this valuable resource in the Town.

The Centre is open by appointment only, to arrange a visit, please contact Paul Baker (07976 461882) or Gill McDermott (07713 891716)
